LESSON FOR DECEMBER 21

THE KINGDOM OF THE PRINCE OF PEACE.

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 11.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.—v. 12.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Wise Men Visit the Baby Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Bringing Gifts to Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—The Reign of the Prince of Peace.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Permanent World Peace When the Prince of Peace Shall Reign.

On this Christmas occasion let us take a forward look into the golden age which is ahead of us. It is the time of which the wise of all ages have spoken and the poets have sung.
It will not be brought about through improved social conditions or even a League of Nations, but by the personal coming and reign of the Prince of Peace, the Lord Jesus Christ. It is the kingdom which Daniel said the God of heaven should set up (Dan.
2:44, 45; 7:13, 14).

I. The Lineage of the King (v. 1).
He is of royal stock, the seed of David. His birth took place nearly 2,000 years ago. This Christmas season is a memorial of it.

II. The Gifts and Power of the King (v. 2).

These result from the resting upon him of the Spirit of the Lord. Because of this endowment he is equipped to administer the affairs of the kingdom.
A sixfold characterization of the Spirit's gifts shows the completeness of the equipment.

1. The Spirit of the Lord. This title shows that he is to be qualified for his work by divine inspiration.

2. The spirit of wisdom. He is omnipotent. Only a king of such wisdom can rule over the whole earth.

3. The spirit of understanding. This understanding, coupled with wisdom, gives discernment and discrimination.

4. The spirit of counsel. This means, doubtless, the gift of making decisions.

5. The spirit of might. This means the ability to execute his decisions. Decisions would be of little value without the ability to execute them.

6. The spirit of knowledge. This refers to his reverent attitude toward God.

III. The Nature or Character of the King's Rule (v. 3-5).

1. A quick understanding in the fear of the Lord. He will have ability quickly to discern Godly fear in the human heart.

2. An unerring judgment. He will not judge after appearances.

3. Ability to render decisions according to the merits of the case. His decisions will not be based on hearsay, nor on plausibility, but on first-hand knowledge.

4. Impartial judgment of the poor.
The time is coming when the poor will get justice.

5. Reproof with equity for the meek.
Jesus said that the meek shall inherit the earth.

6. He shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth. When he comes the earth will be utterly wicked. Apostasy will be manifest on every hand.
His blessed reign will be ushered in by the judgment of the nations (Matt.
25:31-46).

IV. The Harmony and Peace of the Kingdom (v. 6-9).

This harmony will prevail in the relationship of men and will be extended to the animal kingdom. War will be no more. The cow and the bear will feed together; the lion will eat straw, not flesh. The sucking child will sport with the most deadly serpent. Paradise will indeed be restored.
This will be made possible through the personal reign of the Messiah in Jerusalem (v. 9).

V. How the Kingdom Will Be Set Up (v. 10-13).

1. The elevation of the King (v. 10).
His elevation will be a sign to the nations; to this sign they will respond.
The only way to bring unity among the nations is to exalt Jesus Christ.

2. The regathering of Israel (v. 11, 12). Out from the nations of the earth Israel will be gathered. Israel and Judah will unite under the one king in the city of Jerusalem.

3. Envy will disappear from Ephraim and Judah (v. 13). When they see him and are joined to him the tribal antipathy will disappear.

4. There will be physical changes which will alter the surface of the earth (v. 15, 16). When redemption will have been completed not only the spirits of men will be in accord, but there will be harmony in the animal world, and changes will be brought about in the earth itself which will make it fit for the conditions under which men will then live.

Blessings.

No man can get a blessing and keep it all to himself without having it like stagnant water in his soul; but if it overflows to others it shall become a perennial spring to himself and to the world.—Wilton Merle Smith.

Opportunities.

Opportunities approach only those who use them.—Emerson.

The Broad Hat.

A broad hat does not always cover a venerable head.

Splendid Cough Medicine.

"As I feel that every family should know what a splendid medicine Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is, I am only too pleased to relate my experience and only wish that I had known of its merits years ago," writes Mrs. Clay Fry, Ferguson Station, Mo. "I give it to my children when they show the slightest symptoms of being croupy, and when I have a cough or cold on the lungs a very few doses will relieve me, and by taking it for a few days, I soon get rid of the cold.—Adv.

this neighborhood were operated during the general strike of miners, but the output of none of them was very large.

—While Isadore Gross, aged 12, was coasting a hill on West avenue in Youngstown last Sunday his sled shot under a passing automobile and he was so badly crushed by the wheels that death soon resulted.

—Senator Atlee Pomerene seems to be the only senator in the upper branch at Washington who has the courage to stand up for what he thinks is right without trying to count the political cost of his opinions.

—Warren has visions of a price of around $1 a thousand for natural gas when its present franchise expires.
Beginning the first of January Canfield people will pay $1.25 a thousand, less 15 cents for prompt payment of bills.

—M. T. Nace, retired Lisbon druggist, 70 years old, died in Los Angeles, Cal., where he had gone to spend the winter with a daughter. He had arrived there only a day or two before.
The body will be brought back to Lisbon for burial.

—As Christmas falls on Thursday, the day the Dispatch is usually printed, the paper next week will be issued one day ahead of time. Local correspondents and advertisers will please note the change and send in their favors early.

—The Mercer (Pa.) Press, published papers of western Pennsylvania are facing a similar situation.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

—The Gazette says the gas shortage has cost Jefferson people thousands of dollars already. Nearly every household has been obliged to buy furnaces, stoves for using oil, gasoline, wood or coal. Many homes have lacked heat and light and a few people have suffered privations.

—Newspapers all over the country are experiencing great difficulty in securing print paper which has been greatly advanced in price. Many of the smaller papers have been forced to suspend publication, and unless a change in conditions comes very soon hundreds more will have to give up the ghost. It is a sorry day for towns left without a community newspaper, a fact that will be more appreciated as time passes.

Heat Your House Upstairs and Down

Going from Warm Rooms Into Cold Ones Breeds Sickness and Often Years of Misery

Are you still using stoves to heat your home? Don't you dread going upstairs in the dead of winter—to bed or to dress? Remember how you hugged the coal stove last winter, and when your face was hot and your back chilled, how you stood with back to fire and hands behind you.

You Can Heat the Whole House With a WRIGHT PIPELESS HEATER

With Less Fuel Than You Now Consume For Downstairs Alone

But heat and a saving of fuel isn't all that goes with installation of a WRIGHT. You save muss and fuss, work and worry.

Any furnace will deliver heat, but none so much as a WRIGHT.

And, besides, the materials used in the WRIGHT PIPELESS HEATER are selected with such discriminating care that for years to come all that will be necessary to maintain your heating plant is a moderate supply of fuel and to clean out the ashes.

Actions speak louder than words. We could cite you hundreds of voluntary testimonials as to Wright superiority. We would rather prove by demonstration in your own home just why most people prefer the Wright.

When you choose a WRIGHT you do so with a guarantee that if you are not satisfied your money refunded.

WE ARE TRYING TO INTEREST YOU IN A THOROUGHLY TESTED ONE-REGISTER HEATER THAT HAS GIVEN ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION THROUGH-OUT THE COUNTRY.
